The Great Currency Shock of 2016

In January, 2015 the Swiss did a sneak devaluation triggering billions in losses in the blink of an eye...

Then, in August, 2015, the Chinese launched an even better currency attack.

Markets flash crashed for four straight days...

Now, in early 2016, I'm anticipating the third and biggest currency shock yet.
And no one sees it coming...

Dear Reader,

Hi, Jim Rickards here.

I've just uncovered something extremely time-sensitive. Please read this short message in its entirety.

Soon -- perhaps just weeks from now -- I believe markets will be hit by the third and biggest currency shock since the currency wars started in 2010.

It's going to be a hard stab in America's back by one of our closest "allies".

Absolutely no one is expecting this...

Yet, when this sneak currency attack hits financial markets in the next few weeks...

- ✓ Stocks could flash crash by over 10% in a matter of minutes, causing a selloff...
- ✓ Oil prices could crash even lower than $35 per barrel...
- ✓ Some financial institutions might go bankrupt, taking savers money with them...
- ✓ The U.S.'s most powerful financial weapon will be destroyed...
- ✓ America's biggest "frenemy" will gain the world's #1 financial advantage...

- ✓ And a full scale war between a region's two biggest powers could explode. The U.S. might even get dragged into the fighting...

That's why I'm holding a free live video summit next Monday, January 18th at 7pm, EST.

If you don't want to be blindsided by this coming currency shock, it's urgent you attend.

I'll be broadcasting my video feed from a new property at an undisclosed location in the mountains of New England where I'm staying right now

Why?

Because on January 22nd -- four days after my broadcast will go live -- an announcement will be made that could speed up the timeline this great currency shock will happen in.

And there are two things you need to know before that...

- 1. What this currency shock is, how it could crush markets and how to get out of the way in time...
- 2. And the once in a lifetime chance to make 300% or more from it in a way that I consider more conservative than how most investors typically buy stocks...

Mark my words. As soon as this shock hits financial markets, the media will go ape.

And the sneak attacks by Switzerland and China are nothing compared to the great currency shock I'm forecasting now...

When America is betrayed by its sworn "ally" in the coming weeks, there will be a violent market reaction.

Of course, market volatility can be an absolute hunting ground for big gains... If you know how to play it the right way.

That's why my readers have had the chance to claim gains like...

- ✓ 19% on moves in the Malaysian Ringgit currency...
- ✓ 38% on the strengthening U.S. dollar...
- ✓ 75% playing the Malaysian Ringgit currency again...
- ✓ And 110% on the tanking Japanese Yen...

And that's why I'm hosting "The Great Currency Shock of 2016 Summit." It's a time-sensitive, video training event...

If you're positioned correctly before the shockwaves shake through the financial system, you could be sitting on nice returns, instead of hitting the sell button in the aftermath.

The information and strategy to prepare and potentially profit from this shock will be revealed for free next Monday on January 18th at 7pm, EST.

Please read the details of this event carefully...

What... An exclusive and live training session to give you my #1 way to prepare for the greatest currency shock yet .

Who... Me, Jim Rickards, coming to you live from a new property at an undisclosed location in the mountains of New England. I'm spending my time there now as this tumultuous event barrels towards us.

Where... A Private Webpage where the live video feed will be broadcast...

Price... 100% FREE, while limited spots last.

It's free to signup (even if you can't make it on Monday, please still sign up. We'll be replaying the broadcast for you afterwards. But only for those who RSVP today.)

For reasons I'll explain, we're only looking for just 2,000 out of our 200,000 readers to RSVP today.

If you're at all concerned by this year's great currency shock... as well as the opportunity it brings you if you know about it...

If you're wondering how to analyze, forecast and tap violent currency moves for profit chances...

And if you want to hear why I believe you stand the chance to triple your money over the coming weeks when this currency shock hits...

Then Enter Your Email Below to Reserve Your Spot to The Great Currency Shock of 2016 Summit. (Don't Delay. Spots Are Very Limited)

All the best,
Jim Rickards
